

Using Pronouns

-  Use a subject pronoun as the subject of a sentence and after a linking verb.
 Use an object pronoun after an action verb.

A. Write the correct form of the pronoun in parentheses ().

1. Karen showed Alice and _____ a picture of Matthew Henson. (I, me)
2. Robert Peary and _____ were American explorers. (he, him)
3. Karen told her sister and _____ about them. (we, us)
4. The class expert on explorers is _____. (she, her)
5. Some people gave _____ and their team money. (they, them)
6. Peary made it clear that the leader was _____. (he, him)
7. _____ and his team explored Greenland in 1886. (He, Him)
8. The people in this photograph are _____. (they, them)
9. The North Pole interested _____ and his men. (he, him)
10. Alice and _____ read about their polar explorations. (I, me)

B. Write the correct subject or object pronoun for the noun in parentheses ().

11. A small party and _____ succeeded in 1909. (Robert Peary)
12. _____ and his team planted the American flag at the Pole. (Peary)
13. Matthew Henson and four Eskimos were _____. (the team)
14. Peary and _____ used dogs to pull sleds. (the team)
15. Supporting groups supplied Peary and _____ with food and fuel. (the team)
16. Our teacher and _____ were impressed by their story. (our class)
17. Sue and Ben joined our teacher and _____ in our studies. (our class)
18. On the explorers test, the highest scorers were Sue and _____. (Ben)
19. Ben and _____ enjoyed learning about Peary and Henson. (Sue)

WRITE IT

On separate paper, write about an explorer you admire. Use subject and object pronouns in your sentences.

Using Pronouns

Look at the underlined pronouns in the sentences below. On the line beside each sentence, write subject or object to describe the pronoun.

1. My friend and I visited Franklin Roosevelt's home. _____
2. We saw him and his cousins in the old pictures. _____
3. Mrs. Jen told Mary and me about his wife, Eleanor. _____
4. The woman in this picture is she. _____

Use a subject pronoun as the subject of a sentence and after a linking verb. Use an object pronoun after an action verb.

Underline the correct pronoun in parentheses ().

EXAMPLE: Roosevelt's parents and (he, him) lived at Hyde Park, New York.

1. You see (he, him) and his pony in this old photograph.
2. The child on the right is (he, him).
3. (He, Him) and his governesses did his lessons at home.
4. (They, Them) and his parents wanted a happy childhood for him.
5. Hobbies such as collecting stamps, building model ships, and watching birds interested his cousins and (he, him).
6. He continued (they, them) and similar interests all his life.
7. (He, Him) and Eleanor Roosevelt, a distant cousin, got married.
8. What amazing people were (they, them)!
9. Their five children and (they, them) traveled a great deal.
10. Paul and (I, me) read about how he became crippled with polio.
11. The man in the wheelchair is (he, him).
12. Friends helped Eleanor and (he, him) with his political career.
13. (She, Her) and many others fought for equal rights for minorities.
14. Her aides and (she, her) traveled all over the world.
15. My grandfather says she visited (he, him) and other wounded soldiers.
16. Many Americans have admired (she, her) and Franklin.
17. One of Eleanor Roosevelt's greatest admirers today is (I, me).
18. Eleanor's achievements teach (us, we) and all Americans how much a First Lady can accomplish.
19. I enjoy reading about (she, her) and other Presidents' wives.
20. (Her, She) and other Presidents' wives wrote books about their lives.